NETWORK

CrowdTuesday, 21st November 2017, Berlin

Once again CrowdTuesday hits Berlin. On the 21st of November the crowdfunding and SME ecosystems in Berlin are invited to get together for presentations, informal discussions and networking around drinks in order to talk about:

“New SME stock exchange segments”

In addition, the event will focus on ICOs and how blockchain will influence crowdfunding.

The event will take place on Tuesday the 21st of November at

大成 DENTONS

Markgrafenstraße 33
10117 Berlin Germany

from 3:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

CrowdTuesday is a small to medium sized event bringing together the crowdfunding and SME industry at local level. Characterized by an informal and welcoming atmosphere, CrowdTuesday is a perfect occasion for anybody interested to do some networking or to listen to interesting presentations on latest trends such as initial coin offerings, while having an after work drink. Participation is free of charge.

The speakers at this CrowdTuesday regarding SME stock exchange segments include:

- Moritz Homann (EQS) will talk about Market Abuse Regulation and SMEs
- Martin Ziegenbalg (BaFin) will talk about the new prospectus regulation for SMEs
- Renata Bandov (Deutsche Börse) will talk about the new Scale Segment and the Venture Network
- Tobias Seidl (SICOS (Lux) S.C.S.) will talk about ICOs and how blockchain technology will open up new approaches towards Crowdfunding
- Stephan Weinandy (BaFin) will talk about legal implications of ICOs

Moderators are:

- Oliver Gajda (European Crowdfunding Network)
- Robert Michels (Dentons Europe LLP)

Presentations are in German and will be followed by an hour of networking around drinks.

We would like to thank Dentons Europe LLP for organizing CrowdTuesday Berlin on our behalf.
